ANNA CASA INTERIORS

Luxurious Italian design showroom Anna Casa Interiors has become one of London's go-to destinations for contemporary furniture. Creative director and St John's Wood resident Anna Dodonova sources each piece for its modern and stylish aesthetic, having realised the need for innovative international brands in London.

The new collection features this gorgeous Arturbed Front Bed, an art deco design which is available upholstered in leather or custom-made to a fabric of your choice. £9,638, WWW.ANNACASA.NET

NEW YORK HOME IN LONDON

With sleek architecture, smart furniture and rich colours as standard, there are few people who haven't once desired loft-style living space, akin to that of a grand Manhattan penthouse.

The new homeware collection from urban design guru Kenneth Cole indulges such fantasies. Spanning everything from chaise longues to crockery, the line has a modern and slightly masculine feel, ideal for any city pad.

The ebony leather sofa and glass and solid beech table are particularly slick yet functional additions for an entertaining space, which can be styled with monochrome candles and the vivid red ceramic pendant light.

'NEW YORK HOME' BY KENNETH COLE IS AVAILABLE EXCLUSIVELY AT HOUSE OF FRASER

OUT OF AFRICA

The wild, western province of Zimbabwe is the inspiration for renowned sculptor Patrick Mavros, who immortalises native wildlife in silver.

Each unique piece is created at his hilltop studio just outside Harare and recent designs include a functional lamp set within an intricate carving of playing monkeys, as well as elephant-based candle sticks and a range of sculpture.

Patrick's twenty year career was born of his desire to make a precious and sentimental gift for a partner and he continues to use a pain-staking wax casting method to produce exquisitely detailed and original items which add character to any home.

A selection of his stunning pieces are now available at Harrods. WWW.PATRICKMAVROS.COM

TEATIME TREATS

Take tea on the terrace this May using the delicate home ware designs from Poppy Treffry. Inspired by village life, the designer has created a range of textiles and ceramics adorned with suitably summery illustrations.

There are turquoise cushion covers appliquéd with sailing boats, signature tea cosies sparkling with butterflies and all manner of adorable trinkets - from pictures to postcards. All designs are made in the UK and the crockery range is crafted from fine British bone china. TEAPOT FROM £32, TEA COSIES FROM £35, WWW.POPPYTREFFRY.CO.UK
